FOR THE LOVE OF EVENTS & EXPERIENCES

ABOUT US

Hello, we are Eventologists. We love creating amazing events and experiences that bring people together.

The home of original and creative events, we bring your ideas to life with brands who truly want to work with us. Our team work nationwide, collaborating with event organisers, marketers, brands and agencies to inspire and deliver experiences that your guests love and remember. We can also create virtual and hybrid interactive events using the latest technology at our new in-house facility, helping you to meet your current and future event requirements.

Our teams at Eventologists, Event Trees and Funky Event Hire have a reputation of delivering bespoke, creative solutions and events. We're big enough to deliver your large-scale projects, but still small enough to make you feel that you're our only customer.

OUR DIFFERENCE

experience

thinking
small agency approach

6000
events delivered

focussed on you

6,000 events delivered. 60 years experience bringing memorable event experiences for major corporate brands UK wide through inspiring design and production.

Strategic thinking that bring concepts and creative ideas to life. Our understanding of business, marketing, trends and experience means that we constantly look at ways of making events exciting

Planning for the unplanned. We know that events can encounter problems and last-minute changes. But with our vast experience, we know how to deal with any challenges and are agile to adapt to alterations and last-minute additions!

We want to out-shine your last event. We go beyond conventionality to bring creative ideas that mean your event will always stand out, even when you use us over and over again!

Big thinking with a small agency style. We're not just a supplier, we're part of your team and your deadline is our deadline! Your event and its success defines ours!

We make it simple and easy. Our informal approach helps to make sure every last detail is covered. There's no red tape with us and we turn around requests really quickly!

Strong track record of successful events. We've managed over 6,000 events of all shapes and sizes from initial plans and design concepts to final delivery. And for every event we take on, we treat it like our first... our reputation and positive customer feedback speak for itself!

In-house team. We don't give your event to 3rd party agencies, so you can be confident that our own event experts are the only team you have. We keep our talent in house, from carpentry to electronics, which means we can turn around projects quickly and deliver great value and high standards.

We care. Our industry and the people who work in are at the heart of what we do. So, for every event you book through us, we make a donation to EventWellto support individuals in the events industry who are experiencing mental health difficulties

Sustainability matters to us. We want to shape a more sustainable future, so we use materials sourced locally or from the UK. To care for our environment, we look to recycle, re-use or upcycle as much as possible and deliver events that don't impact the world you love!

Customer focused. It's one of our most important attributes. When we manage your event, we invest ourselves in making sure we deliver a great experience for you. Our service has been described as so great that you'll never feel you're our only customer! We become part of your family when we join you!

WHAT OUR CLIENTS SAY

I wished I'd got in touch with Eventologists sooner. I didn't realise what 'good' looked like until I met Rita, and she came up with some brilliant ideas that were perfect for motivating our financial services team. We needed them to connect, build relationships as well as have a good time. I cannot recommend Rita's team enough, and I am looking forward to working with them this August.

I had the pleasure of working with Sital recently, when we both provided services to Lime Venues for their pre-meeting show event. I must say I was very impressed by the trees Eventologists set up in the courtyard, they looked amazing. I found Sital to have a lot of knowledge of the events industry, and really did go the extra mile to make the courtyard look amazing:

Thank you for pulling out all the stops for our Christmas Social – the Peaky Blinders theme went down a storm and it looked unreal! The decor, props, bespoke items and attention to detail really made the event last night. As ever, you and the team were complete professionals and a dream to work with. Huge thanks and appreciation, I look forward to the next event already!
